Dear Komal,
I hope this email reaches you soon. How are you? We have not meet after the graduation completed and I miss you so much.

So what are you doing now? Like any job or something! Here, I have came forward with a new idea of my company.

I am starting my new software company and would like to forward a hand towards you for a collaboration with my company.

I have asked our friends mehul and karishma also for collaboration and they are eagerly for our startup.

I want you to be also a part of my company, I want hardworking and talented people like you.

"Are you ready to work with me?". Please reply soon as you receive my mail.
Thank you!

Yours lovingly,
Dharmit Shah.

Enclosed:-
Plan and structure of my company.
GST No. Registration Receipt.

to me

Yes, I am interested.
dear dharmit,
i just received your email .I am absolutely fine, how are you?
and actually yar i also want to meet and even i 'm also missing you so much.

Nowadays i am working in a software company but here i am finding difficulties like the payment is very low and the working hours are too much
So I have decided to leave this job.

Congratulations for your new startup,
I am really glad for you that you are starting your own business.

I am really excited to work with you guys. I will definitely be a part of your company.
I will be informed after resigning from my company.

your lovely friend,
komal menaria
